Prayer Request

This past week, 4 people were killed in a Georgia school shooting. Many more were injured. That community needs healing and strength that God can provide. Please pray for them.

How to Offer Help

Don't wait to be told; ask and offer. Well-intentioned helpers often say, "If you need anything, let me know." But the person in need may be too overwhelmed to be able to act on such a broad, open-ended offer. Better to be proactive and specific: "Can I get you something from the grocery this afternoon?" "Can we take the kids for a sleepover this weekend to play with ours while you help your Mom?"

Prayer Requests

Rob Padrick has requested prayers for healing.

Tina Nelson, sister of Cindy Padrick, has cancer. They are now administering chemo and radiation therapy for her. Please pray for the wisdom of all involved and healing for Tina.

Anel, a member of Thelma's family, has stage 4 colon and uterine cancer. She has started chemo therapy. Please keep her and her family in prayer.

Bryan and Shannon Pierce met with a judge this Friday. Hopefully some decisions will be reached. Please continue to pray for their family.

Chris Ankersen is moving forward with his cancer treatment. Please pray that it will be successful.

Wendy and Sam Ricci are struggling to care for Sam's mom. Please pray for strength and peace for them both.

Ann Ricci is at Viera Del Mar, where she is working on rehabilitation. Please continue to pray for her.

Linda Conn had heart surgery on the 6th. Please pray for her healing.

Jim Conn had surgery on his foot. Please pray for his healing.

Floyd Bethea, Steve Mason's uncle, fell because of a brain aneurism. Please pray for him.

Camir Mann, a friend of Steve Mason, who has a chronic illness has been placed on hospice care. Please pray for Camir and the Mann family.

The Beard family is having a rough time. Donna fell and broke her knee cap. Now Dennis has stepped wrong off his back deck and broken his foot. Please pray for the Beard family.

A request for help: The Anderson family is requesting help with Tyler's family. Megan, who is having troubles with her blood pressure, needs rides to doctor's appointments. She has two appointments per week. If you can help, please contact either Jim or Kristina Anderson.

Redemption in Isaiah

Isaiah is a book of judgment and hope. Due to rebellion, idolatry, and injustice, of God's covenant people, God uses Persia to exile the people to Babylon and then to redeem them and bring them back. In chapters 40-48, hope and comfort are announced. The people are told the exile is over and they should return home where God will bring his Kingdom to Jerusalem and allow all nations to see his glory. Israel, instead of bearing witness to God, complains and accuses God of ignoring them. God responds to their accusations and states his purposes. In chapters 49-55, the "servant" is introduced and will fulfill God's mission. God calls him "Israel" and his mission is twofold; restore the people to God and become a light to the nations. He is empowered by God's Spirit to proclaim the good news. The servant will accomplish all this by being rejected, beaten, and killed by his own people. He will be the redemption of God. He dies, but he comes back to life giving people two choices; respond with humility, turn from sin, and accept what the servant did for them, or, reject God's effort.

Chapters 56-66 are where the servants, who choose to follow the "servant", inherit God's Kingdom. The New Jerusalem will be the place of God's justice and mercy and will flow out to the world. There are two long prayers of confession and repentance. In this new Kingdom, people from all nations are invited to join the servants in God's covenant family so they too can know their Creator and redeemer. Through the suffering of the servant king, God creates a covenant family with all nations awaiting the hope of a renewed creation and the coming of God's Kingdom.
