Song Leader: John Wahtera

Scripture Reading: Sammy Mumme

Colossians 3:22-4:1

Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything; and do it, not only when their eye is on you and to curry their favor, but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord. Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving. Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for their wrongs, and there is no favoritism. Masters, provide your slaves with what is right and fair, because you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

Redemption in Isaiah

Isaiah is a book of judgment and hope. Due to rebellion, idolatry, and injustice, of God's covenant people, God uses Persia to exile the people to Babylon and then to redeem them and bring them back. In chapters 40-48, hope and comfort are announced. The people are told the exile is over and they should return home where God will bring his Kingdom to Jerusalem and allow all nations to see his glory. Israel, instead of bearing witness to God, complains and accuses God of ignoring them. God responds to their accusations and states his purposes. In chapters 49-55, the "servant" is introduced and will fulfill God's mission. God calls him "Israel" and his mission is twofold; restore the people to God and become a light to the nations. He is empowered by God's Spirit to proclaim the good news. The servant will accomplish all this by being rejected, beaten, and killed by his own people. He will be the redemption of God. He dies, but he comes back to life giving people two choices; respond with humility, turn from sin, and accept what the servant did for them, or, reject God's effort.

Chapters 56-66 are where the servants, who choose to follow the "servant", inherit God's Kingdom. The New Jerusalem will be the place of God's justice and mercy and will flow out to the world. There are two long prayers of confession and repentance. In this new Kingdom, people from all nations are invited to join the servants in God's covenant family so they too can know their Creator and redeemer. Through the suffering of the servant king, God creates a covenant family with all nations awaiting the hope of a renewed creation and the coming of God's Kingdom.
